FENCING

One of the five founding events of the modern Olympic Games, fencing is divided into three categories: foil, épée, and sabre. The fencing programme ranges from introducing children to the basics of foil fencing through a series of activities, games and skills-building activities, to a competitive training regime. Potential fencing classes require specialised equipment, which should be purchased with the course.

Beginner Class (For ages 4-7 years)

This class is suitable for children who haven't taken any fencing lessons.

- Introduces the basics of foil fencing through a series of activities and games to improve foot and body movement.
- Benefits both physically and mentally through enhancing confidence, social skills, discipline and concentration.
- Teaches the basic skills of fencing including engage, advance, retreat and lunge.

Potential Class (For ages 8-10 years)

This class is suitable for children who have taken fencing lessons over half a year. A set of fencing gear is required.

- Introduces parry and disengage at various positions.
- Teaches the different types of attacks tactics, and improves fencing skills.
- Helps develop good hand/eye coordination, balance and quick reflexes.
